Can you tell me more about the Retreat itself?

The retreat is a grace that helps us focus upon the role of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian Community, and upon the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. The Gospel Tradition is proclaimed through a series of personal testimonies during which lay Catholics share their stories of faith. Small group discussions give retreatants the opportunity to talk and perhaps for the first time say out loud who and what God means to them and how He has touched their lives.

Through a special Liturgy of Consecration, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are rekindled and stirred within the lives of the people. The retreat uniquely moves from the basic foundations of initiation and conversion to specific actions necessary in one's walk to live the Christian Life: prayer and study, suffering, community and witnessing.

What is so unique about this retreat, as opposed to the many other encounters, searches, retreats, conferences and workshops, is that this retreat never ends. It happens over and over again each weekend within the context of Sunday liturgy and the parish community with which the Christians of other denominations are also welcome to attend Evangelization Retreats.

What if I can't attend the full retreat?

There is a portion of this retreat that will take place in small groups. It does not work well for people to attend only parts of the retreat. The retreat moves from one theme to the next and builds throughout the weekend.

If you are unable to attend the full retreat, we recommend that you wait until the next one is offered.
